Minneapolis Intergroup: Recovery, Unity, Service

December 2019 Step, Tradition, and Concept Eleven

Step Twelve

“Having had a spiritual awakening as the result of these steps, we tried to carry this message to alcoholics, and to practice these principles in all our affairs.”

The beauty of AA is that it is far more than a simple abstinence program. Setting alcohol aside is a first and crucial action. However, AA is so much richer, complex, and life-giving. The Twelfth Step implies that if we discover the principles of the program and begin to apply them in our lives, we will experience a spiritual awakening beyond anything we could have imagined.

Mine has been of the slow, educational variety. Each Step has revealed or awakened in me a new understanding of myself and of my alcoholic drinking, thinking, and tendencies. In Step One, I saw how I'd screwed up my life with alcohol. I pursued wine, vodka, and alcohol-induced euphoria and romance to the point of divorce, unemployment, and emotional wreckage. At that point a friend invited me to join her in attending AA meetings. I railed against Step One. I wasn't a drunk like other drunks. My first sponsor asked me to look for the similarities, not my differences, and I kept coming back. I'm so glad I did. It's taken years to unravel my distorted thinking.

Step Two allowed me to find a God of my own understanding, not the wrathful, judgmental one that I thought God was. I didn't want to be a missionary in Africa or even in Minnesota which is what I thought I'd have to be if I took Step Three. The words "care of God" were pointed out to me. I found a caring, compassionate, loving God in AA.

Step Four was a revelation, too. Who knew I'd harbored all those fears and resentments? I dragged a huge gunny sack of negative emotions around with me every day. It weighed me down and impeded my progress. Disclosing all that negative garbage during Step 5 took courage. What would my sponsor think of me? She related her own similarities and loved me despite the fact that I couldn't love myself. In Steps 6 and 7 I asked God to remove the objectionable defects that drove me.

Those two little Steps look so short, innocent, and easy. Yet taking them was hard. It meant that in addition to asking, I needed to start living the opposite of my old ways: patient instead of impatient, tolerant instead of judgmental, driving on the freeway with compassion instead of a raised finger!

I made a list of those I'd harmed, consulted with my sponsor, and set about making amends. As scary as Steps 8 and 9 were, I began to feel a peace and contentment I'd never known while carrying around the old gunny sack of anger, blame, and resentment. Continued inventory (Ten), and (Eleven) prayer and meditation help me to center myself in this way of life on a daily basis and to recognize when I need to change. Each of the first eleven steps awakened in me a new awareness of who I was as an active alcoholic and who I am now as a sober, productive member of society.

Step Twelve asks us to carry the message to other alcoholics. I do this by having a home group and a job in my home group.

Notes from your Service Office:

The General Service Theme for 2019 is: “Our Big Book - 80 Years, 71 Languages.”

Answering phones is one of the vital services Minneapolis Intergroup has to offer. There is nothing like the feeling you get when answering the phone and connecting with a person looking for help and offering hope and direction. We are keeping track of calls during office hours (does not include group phone shifts) for October, November and December.

For October we had: AA Meeting Info: 94, 12th Step Calls: 15, General Information: 216, Referrals (Includes Al-Anon): 21. I feel it important to share that on the first two days of November, so far, one day we had three 12th Steps calls at the same time and the next day we had four. One call ended with a 911 call. We will let you know how November and December turn out. Thank you to all who volunteer to answer phones. You have made it possible for the hand of A.A. to be there when someone reaches out for help. We always need help answering phones. Even if it is one day a month. We will provide you with an orientation.

Besides the phones, we receive inquiries by an email posted on our website. I save the emails I get from the website in a file on my desktop. I would like to share a few with you. The following are word for word minus personal identification information.

5/9/19 I reached out and was contacted by the office. Right now I only have email. My wallet was stolen and I've lost my phone. I'm looking for someone to help me into detox. I need want and would do anything to get well. Right now I think detox may be the only option. I'm trying on my own but taking 50 sips to get over the withdrawals are leading to more bottles on my floor. Can you help me.

6/17/19 I think I might have a problem but I'm maybe afraid to admit it...How do I know if I have a problem and if it is too big for me to handle?

9/13/19 I regret that this email might not be in full earnest, but I'm looking for options, as I cannot afford a therapist at this point in my life. Not that I expect therapy or any such related stuff from these meetings. But I'm 27 and have fulfilled the questionnaire on the website that suggests I might need help. I would love nothing more than to live in a world where I don't feel the need to drink every night. But I'm too inexperienced to have the answers I need to move forward. And I'm not so stubborn to say that I can do it all on my own. I just want to be normal and happy again.

Every day I am reminded why we are here. Thank you to all the volunteers for your vital service. We couldn't do it without you.

In Love and Service,

Gail S., your office manager

Notes from Your Board Chair:

The holiday season...I remember as a kid how much I loved this time of year, the laughter, the family, the presents, the snow. As I got older and my alcoholism began to take over, the holiday season turned into "thanks for the new winter boots, but I would really prefer the cash", and suddenly "family" was a burden not a source of joy.

My parents both passed before I found the rooms of AA, and one of my biggest regrets is how selfish I was during this time of the year. Christmas was my mom's favorite holiday, and year after year if I bothered to show up I was late. I got sober on New Year's Eve, and made a promise to myself to embrace my inner child and really enjoy this time of year.

As an alcoholic, from Thanksgiving through Christmas can really be challenging. You need to buy the best gift, and host the best party and DON'T DRINK! Remember that for most of us, the only thing our loved ones want most from us is to stay on this path of recovery.

I always try to pick up an extra meeting, take on a service commitment, and just get busy!

Intergroup's Winter Open House will be on Saturday, December 14th from 9:00am to 1:00pm, I plan on buying some new books to keep me busy this winter!

I look forward to seeing you all there!

Best,

Patti P., Board Chair

Twelve Concepts for World Service, written by Bill W. in 1962

Concept XII:

Long Form: General Warranties of the Conference: in all its proceedings, the General Service Conference shall observe the spirit of the A.A. Tradition, taking great care that the conference never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds, plus an ample reserve, be its prudent financial principle; that none of the Conference Members shall ever be placed in a position of unqualified authority over any of the others; that all important decisions be reached by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, by substantial unanimity; that no Conference action ever be punitive or an incitement to public controversy; that though the Conference may act for the service of Alcoholics Anonymous, it shall never perform any acts of government; and that, like the Society of Alcoholics Anonymous which it serves, the Conference itself will always remain democratic in thought and action.

Short Form: "The Conference shall observe the Spirit of A.A. Tradition, taking care that it never becomes the seat of perilous wealth or power; that sufficient operating funds and reserve be its prudent financial principle; that it place none of its members in a position of unqualified authority over the others; that it reach all important decisions by discussion, vote, and whenever possible, substantial unanimity; that its actions never be personally punitive nor an incitement to public controversy; that it never perform acts of government; that, like the Society it serves, it always remain democratic in thought and action.

The 12 Concepts are considered to be the Conference Charter by which the Conference operates. The Charter was an informal agreement made between the AA Groups and the Trustees in 1955. The first Eleven Concepts can be amended at any time by the Conference itself. However, Concept 12 and its Warranties require a two thirds vote by all of the groups that are registered at the General Service Office. And there will be six months allowed for those registered groups to consider any such suggested change.

The Warranties of Concept 12 basically guarantee that the Conference cannot become too wealthy or powerful; it cannot put A.A. as a whole in a place of public controversy; that it will serve AA only; or take punitive action against anyone. It also lets the Conference know that they are expected above all, to hold our Twelve Traditions at the forefront of the business that it conducts! They are the guardians of our Traditions! The Warranties are so in-depth that I can only touch on one. The others can be found in the Service Manual under Concept XII, page 60. I chose Warranty One to touch on. "The Conference shall never become the seat of perilous wealth or power." That doesn't mean that we leave the Conference with no money. There must be some money and some authority to use that money. The traditions keep us from taking outside contributions, so the Conference cannot become too wealthy through group contributions only. And the groups themselves are not normally willing to add unnecessary services that need to be funded by their contributions. And as for authority, well the Spirit of Rotation takes care of that! As long as we stay humble and efficient, we should be here for many generations to come!

Yours in Service,

Missy P.

Twelve Traditions— How They Apply In Our Lives

TRADITION Twelve

“Anonymity is the spiritual foundation of all our traditions, ever reminding us to place principles before personalities.”

These questions were originally published in Grapevine in conjunction with a series of articles on the Twelve Traditions that ran from November 1969 to September 1971. While they were originally intended as suggestions for individual use, many AA groups have since adopted them and them as a basis for wider discussion.

1. Why is it a good idea for me to place the common welfare of all AA members before individual welfare? What would happen to me if AA as a whole disappeared?
2. When I do not trust or agree with AA’s current servants, who do I wish had the authority to straighten them out?
3. In my opinions of and remarks about other AAs, do I imply that membership requirements go beyond the desire to stay sober?
4. Have I a personal responsibility to help an AA group fulfill its primary purpose? What is my part?
5. Do I do all I can do to support AA financially?
6. Should I keep my AA membership a secret, or reveal it in private conversation when that may help another alcoholic (and therefore me) is my brand of AA attractive so that other drunks might want it?
7. What does anonymity mean to me?
8. In light of increased awareness of alcoholism and AA’s program of recovery among the general public, why is the principle of anonymity still important?
9. Am I mindful to respect the anonymity of other AA members who may work in my place of employment or my industry? How about AA members who live in my area or neighborhood?
10. What does “principles before personalities” mean to me?

I volunteer to clean up after the meeting. When I first came to AA, most meetings were smoking meetings. I didn’t see why I had to clean ashtrays if I wasn’t a smoker, or take down chairs that I hadn’t set up, or clean out coffeepots. I did those chores in spite of myself. I learned how to reach out to other alcoholics by making phone calls and doing service that’s within my skill set.

My spiritual awakening wasn’t a “white light” experience. I’ve slowly deepened an understanding of what Bill states on p. 55 of the Big Book. “Deep down in every man, woman, and child is the fundamental idea of God and it is only there that He may be found.” I’ve come to realize that the Spirit of my Creator has been with me since my first breath. I can still my alcoholic, self-centered thinking with prayer and meditation, and reach instead for the love, care, and compassion of God to fill me and renew me. When I can’t find that place inside myself, I reach out and call my sponsor. She reminds me that she loves me and that God loves me. Through my tears, I can once again return to life, turn towards Love, and let love inspire my actions.
