Minneapolis Intergroup: Recovery, Unity, Service

May 2020 Step, Tradition, and Concept Five

Step Five

"Admitted to God, to ourselves, and to another human being the exact nature of our wrongs."

When I admit to God my shortcomings I do this because it is I who needs to own it and own my guilt and remorse. I was in the library writing my fourth step inventory and this is where I shared with my H.P. I began to understand that my weaknesses and strengths are part of who I am.

Admitting to myself came about as I looked at my life, my childhood to the present. I reviewed how I reacted, behaved, the thoughts and beliefs I had formed. It was the first time I had looked at myself in a mirror.

I was always racing through life without stopping to absorb what had happened. I had acquired a lot of self defeating behaviors like fear and perfectionism. These self defeating behavior kept me disturbed and discontented. I had acquired wrong beliefs like caring what you thought of me or that I was not good enough just as I am.

I had been trying to handle life without the help and guidance of a God of my own understanding or the help of a sponsor in A.A. It became clear to me that this did not work well for me. I reached out for help.

I took a big risk and set aside my fears with the belief that sharing my fourth step with another would allow me to grow. I had heard that it was important to do a fifth step in order to help oneself remain sober. I did my fifth step with a minister and later with sponsor's in the Program.

It was the first time I was going to share my most private self with another. I wanted to be very careful about choosing someone to hear my fifth step. It took me awhile to find someone to trust. I found someone who knew the Program well and whose behavior showed it.

I was in a back and forth dialog with this fifth step person. I wasn't just reading what I had written. This person asked me questions to help me see what I was not able to see on my own. After sharing I was given feedback and suggestions from this other person. No one criticized me or laughed at my beliefs or thoughts. I received positive feedback on what I had done and encouragement to continue on my journey to a better life.

It was only by confronting myself in a dialog with another person that I could come to terms with what had happened to me and who I had become as a result of my addiction.

I felt relief. None of my fears materialized. I found that I had not allowed myself the realization that it was o.k. to be human. All humans have defects and strengths. Progress not perfection is my goal today.

In step five I am not reciting all the wrongs I have done but sharing what was behind or underneath them. They are parts of my personality like selfishness, self seeking, dishonesty, fearfulness, and inconsiderate actions. As a result of one of these traits I have injured self or others.

I will conclude by saying my truth. I felt compassion, love and guidance by giving myself the opportunity of doing the fifth step. I encourage you to give yourself this gift.

Notes from your Service Office:

The General Service Theme for 2020 is:

“2020: A Clear Vision For You.”

Welcome to social distancing, “the new normal” and since this began I have never found a container of disinfectant wipes on a store shelf. And then there is “zoom”. Don’t get me wrong, I am thankful we are able to at least meet on line. But now instead of worrying what you think of me, I am worried how I look in the gallery.

We are all constantly adjusting to everyday life, every day and learning as we go. I hope you are all healthy and safe. I don’t know about you, but I thought if I heard one more time, “We are in this together” chanted across my TV screen, I would scream. I know its true, but it didn’t resonate with me for some reason. What did come from my heart was, “You are not alone.”

When you give yourself to this simple program the fellowship is there for you. All you have to do is reach out. There is no doubt we have received an increase in calls from people looking for help. Erin had three 12Step calls herself in one day! Along with that I have had well over thirty individual members calling me to let me know they are available if there is anything they can do to help in these unprecedented times. This is why I am grateful to be an alcoholic.

Minneapolis Intergroup has made some changes we want you to know about.

Our office hours are now Monday thru Friday from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm and Saturday 9:00 am to 1:00 pm.

We are still open for purchasing literature and medallions. The difference is our doors are locked. You need to call in your order ahead of time and pay with a credit card. We will bag up your items and have them ready for you to pick up. We can bring them out to your car if you do not want to come in. We call it Curbside AA.

The afternoon and evening Group Phone shifts at the office are now answered remotely by Night Owls or Early Birds. We want the groups to come back to their shifts when we get the word it is safe to do so. We will call the contacts you listed.

So many people will be effected financially including AA groups too. We understand. Thank you to those who recently sent in a special contribution to show your support for our vital services. If you are able to, the Faithful Fiver program would be a welcome sight. For those that are not aware of this program we inserted the flyer in this MIRUS for your information. Most Intergroups around the United States use this program for financial support.

You are not alone. Reach out and stay connected.

In Love and Service

Gail S. your office manager

Notes from Your Board Chair:

WOW. Who could have guessed that everything we knew and held dear to us could change so quickly? The world of recovery got thrown for a loop in less than 24 hours.

One Monday, the morning news said "groups of no more than 50." By afternoon it had been reduced to groups of 10. Within a week, groups were contacting Intergroup, to cancel their meetings and then calling again with Zoom information to update the website. Gail and the "special workers" worked tirelessly to try to keep it all up to date.

Zoom meetings have since taken over our face-to-face fellowship.

Our challenge now is reaching the newcomer. In a regular meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous, it's pretty easy to spot a Newcomer, but now that we're in the era of Zoom, the process is more difficult!

For me, it's been extremely important to remember and go back to the things that I did in the beginning: regular conversations with my sponsor, re-doubling my efforts with prayer and meditation, and making sure that I'm still attending the same number of meetings I was before it went digital.

I am actually finding it easier to attend MORE meetings!

As we continue to navigate our way through this uncharted territory, let's remember to take a little extra care with each other. The WE of the program is needed now more than ever.

Twelve Concepts for World Service, written by Bill W. in 1962

Concept V:

Long Form: Throughout our world service structure, a traditional "Right of Appeal" ought to prevail, thus assuring us that minority opinion will be heard and that petitions for the redress of personal grievances will be carefully considered.

Short Form: Short Form: "Throughout our structure, a traditional 'Right of Appeal' ought to prevail, so that the minority opinion will be heard and personal grievances receive careful consideration."

Bill W. writes in Concept V that the "Right of Appeal" whether in staffs committees, corporate boards or among the Trustees—should be encouraged to file minority reports whenever they feel a majority to be in considerable error. That doesn't mean that it has to be a formal filing. We ask the minority if they would like to share after each vote has concluded with a 2/3 majority either passing a proposal or voting down a proposal. Perhaps the minority feels that we have missed or not heard all points in the discussion before the vote. Maybe they feel we stopped discussion too early. Whatever the case may be, we give those voting in the minority an opportunity to be heard. Sometimes we end up voting again. But always they have the opportunity to share. I always look up to those who, in the minority, share their points again. They believe in what they originally voted. I haven't always agreed with the majority. Sometimes I feel that if the majority voted that way, then let's try it. We can always change it back.

That is where the, let us say "Formal" Right of Appeal may come in. We have had votes where the decision was made. And then a Group felt we were in error in our decision at the Assembly. They filed a "Right of Appeal" with the Area Chairperson, then the next Area Assembly it was voted on again with the same result. But they did it knowing it could be the same outcome.

I was privileged enough to be able to be an observer on a General Service Board Conference Call this year. They were discussing whether to have a 70th General Service Conference this year. A Trustee made the Recommendation to have a Virtual Conference instead of a Face to Face Conference in light of the COVID-19 Virus. The General Service Board voted for some type of Virtual Conference with the format TBD later. I then was allowed to participate on the next GSB Conference Zoom meeting where they decided to go ahead with the planning of that virtual conference. Does that mean we will have a conference May 16th through the 22nd? Yes But, if when that time gets closer and the COVID-19 Virus is still causing havoc in New York (where the General Service Office resides), then someone can file a "Right of Appeal" to reverse that decision. It applies at all levels of service. From the Home Group to the General Service Office in New York!

Yours in Service,

Missy R

Here is one we want to share:

Sitting at home on a Sunday evening I answered the phone to take a 12th step call. This was at the very beginning of all the meeting closures and new online platforms. The caller was new to the area, didn't know anyone or the area yet and was in a position where she wasn't comfortable sharing that she is an alcoholic with the people she was isolated with. She didn't even want to look up meetings on the intergroup website for fear that she would be found out. I was able to find a call in meeting she could attend that evening and get her connected further with other alcoholics. We talked for about an hour that evening and have stayed in communication since. I have been on the 12th step call list for almost 5 years now, this was one of just 4 calls I've received being on the list. The calls aren't frequent but always very meaningful and makes me grateful my name is on the 12th step list. While we are all facing different challenges in this new way of life, we are also finding new ways to connect, share, and support each other. That is the WE this program so beautifully allows us to be a part of.

Bill W., wrote of Intergroup Offices, "Though not costly, these agencies are absolutely essential to our continued expansion—to our survival as a Fellowship. Their costs are a collective obligation that rests squarely upon all of us. Our support of services actually amounts to a recognition on our part that A.A. must everywhere function in full strength—and that, under our Tradition of self-support, we are all going to foot the bill."

TRADITIONS CHECKLIST FROM THE AA GRAPEVINE

These questions were originally published in the AA Grapevine in conjunction with a series on the Twelve Traditions that began in November 1969 and ran through September 1971. While they were originally intended primarily for individual use, many AA groups have since used them as a basis for wider discussion.

Tradition Five: Each group has but one primary purpose—to carry its message to the alcoholic who still suffers.

1. Do I ever cop out by saying, “I’m not a group, so this or that Tradition doesn’t apply to me”?
2. Am I willing to explain firmly to a newcomer the limitations of AA help, even if he gets mad at me for not giving him a loan?
3. Have I today imposed on any AA member for a special favor or consideration simply because I am a fellow alcoholic?
4. Am I willing to twelfth-step the next newcomer without regard to who or what is in it for me?
5. Do I help my group in every way I can to fulfill our primary purpose?
6. Do I remember that AA old-timers, too, can be alcoholics who still suffer? Do I try both to help them and to learn from them?
