Minneapolis Intergroup: Recovery, Unity, Service

March 2022 Step, Tradition, and Concept Three

Step Three

"Made a decision to turn our will and our lives over to the care of God as we understood Him."

Looking back on my early sobriety in taking this step of making the decision to give God my will, I would say this was actually the first step for me. I could not get through step 1 or 2 without first exploring my view of God or a Higher Power first. I had many false starts when I started (and quit) AA. Looking back, I realize it directly resulted from my lack of humility concerning the God I professed to believe. I didn't have the problem of a lack of belief in God, I was raised as a Christian and enjoyed, and still enjoy, church, Bible studies, and praying regularly. My problem was that due to my faith, I actually thought I could skip over some of the god-stuff that our Big Book and meetings so thoroughly covers and encourages. I skipped the chapter called "We Agnostics" – that just didn't apply to me, or so I thought. I had God and didn't need advice on my faith, thank you very much! No wonder it took me years to put together multiple days of sobriety! I had to take a really good look at what I believed and who I thought God was and what my role was. My days of addiction to alcohol were an endless cycle of waking with the thought of not drinking today, failing to make it through half the day without drinking, yelling at God for not delivering what I needed, and then begging for him to please make me sober. Along with this I tried reading self-help books (usually with a glass wine in my hand) and trying out AA with no commitment to it. Something was obviously missing. In my mind, I was just a victim of addiction and a miracle from God was what I needed. I could not be a "we" with anyone in AA or look at my own faulty thinking as insanity until I made a decision to let go of my will and life and allow God to take charge.

Step three asks us to MAKE A DECISION, meaning we come to a conclusion or resolution after considering our options. I was out of options and didn't and my only resolution seemed to be drinking more and more. Decisions of a drunk are not going to turn out well, alcohol was making my decisions and was also my true higher power. I loved the escape that alcohol allowed, life seemed easier and yes, I was creating more problems in my life, but that allowed me even more excuses to drink, as if an alcoholic ever needs more of that! Solving a problem with a bigger problem is insane and unmanageable and led to a spiritual bankruptcy that left me no choice but to realize that I needed a new outlook on God in order to understand who I was truly and how I was to live in relation to others. I was ready to consider that I had confused religion – rules and judgement, for spirituality – love, acceptance, and a relatable God. I thought I deserved to feel guilty and ashamed, after all, I was a horrible person for being addicted to alcohol and God was punishing me for my sins. I deserved it and just had to bear it. Thankfully AA is a spiritual program, not a religious one. We are free to make a decision to believe in any

Notes from your Service Office:

The General Service Theme for 2022 is:

“A.A. Comes of Age 2.0: Unified in Love and Service.”

Notes from your Service Office

“Every A.A. wants to make sure of his survival from alcoholism, and his own spiritual well-being afterward. This is just as it should be. He also wants to do what he can for the survival and well-being of his fellow alcoholics. Therefore, he is bound to have a vital interest in the permanence and well-being of A.A. itself.”

One way you can do this is become a “Faithful Fiver.” Faithful Fivers are A.A. members who graciously contribute five dollars or more each month to support Minneapolis Intergroup service center. As a Faithful Fiver, you support efforts to carry the A.A. message of hope to still-suffering alcoholics.

Most Central Offices across the US and Canada use this program to help financially support their service center. The Faithful Fiver idea came about when a group of members remembered that they wasted much more than five dollars a month during their drinking days. (See the program form in this MIRUS for more information or to set up your monthly contribution.)

Did you know we have an EFT (electronic funds transfer) program? If you fill out the form one time, you don’t have to think about it any more. Your contribution will automatically be deducted from whatever account you choose: credit card, checking account, savings, etc., each month. When we set up your deduction on a secure site, we cut out your account information so your number is no longer accessible on any paperwork in the Intergroup Office. Contribute any amount you would want. You can cancel anytime you like. You will get a receipt after each contribution is made by email or by US mail. If you choose, go directly to the Intergroup website and click on “Contribute” to skip the paper enrollment. Call Minneapolis Intergroup anytime if you have a question.

In Love and Service

Notes from Your Board Chair:

It is hard to believe it is March already. There are the high school tournaments, college basketball, snow melting, and of course spring vacation. This is the time of year where I start getting the itch. Weather keeps many of us couped up for months just waiting to get out. Looking back, it has been a long couple years, because 2 years ago, on March 6th, the epidemic hit Minnesota. Any sort of normalcy I then took for granted, became questionable. But, as spring is a symbolism of new life, challenges in life are also a time for growth. Changes can be hard. The fortunate thing is we don’t and most of us didn’t have to do it alone. It was amazing to see traditions put into action. As the Traditions were written through experience, we also grew through the epidemic experience. We have new ways of reaching the still suffering. Now, rather than 2 years ago when we were asking what and how we were going to do recovery, we have options. It also takes many of us to accomplish this.

Minneapolis is fortunate to have an excellent recovery community, and Intergroup, one that I am proud to be part of. On April 2nd we will be acknowledging everyone who has helped with this accomplishment by hosting the 39th Annual Gratitude Night. Please see the information in this month’s Mirus, or on the event section at www.aaminneapolis.org. There are also plenty of volunteer opportunities for this event. Hope to see you there!

Thank you for letting me serve,

Cory S. Board Chair

Twelve Concepts for World Service, written by Bill W. in 1962

Concept III: As a traditional means of creating and maintaining a clearly defined working relation between the groups, the Conference, the A.A. General Service Board and its several service corporations, staffs, committees and executives, and of thus insuring their effective leadership, it is here suggested that we endow each of these elements of world service with a traditional “Right of Decision.”

This Concept is a lot easier to understand in practice than it is on paper. Each of these three service entities – the groups, the Conference, and the A.A. General Service Board (and service corporations, staffs, etc.) have been granted authority in place of our founders to take care of Alcoholics Anonymous. This concept outlines how the balance of power functions between the three so that our work gets done efficiently and effectively with all three having the ability to exercise their authority but not be stymied by the others.

The groups have final authority. There are certain aspects of the A.A. program that simply cannot be changed without the authority of the groups. Article XII of the Conference Charter is one of those things. The warranties of Article XII cannot be changed without the written consent of $\frac{3}{4}$ of the registered groups. They also hold the power of the purse. Groups are at the top of the service structure for Alcoholics Anonymous.

The Conference has delegated authority to act for A.A. as a whole and they have practical authority over the trustees. As I mentioned in a previous article, A.A. representatives represent a majority of Conference. Trustees are in the minority. The delegates give the trustees their marching orders. In essence, delegates have the very practical ability to chart the course for Alcoholics Anonymous on an ongoing basis. Groups share their opinions and viewpoints but they trust the delegates and the Conference to make the best decisions for A.A. based on all of the information and their own experience. Groups don't actually tell their delegates how to vote.

The Trustees are also delegated authority to act for A.A. as a whole and they have full authority over the service corporations. They are told what to do but not necessarily how to do it. We delegate to them the implementation of our decisions. The delegates chart the course, and we tell them to “make it so.” But we don't get in the weeds about how to implement our wishes. We trust that they will do necessary research and vetting of each situation to arrive at the most prudent pathway to get the job done.

One of the essential elements to making this system work is mutual trust. Groups trust that the Conference is looking out for the best interests of A.A. The Conference trusts that the Trustees will take the Advisory Actions they are presented each year and implement them in the best way possible. The Trustees trust that we know what is best for A.A. My sponsor told me years ago that if I give someone a job to do, I should trust that it will get done and give them the Right to Decide how to do it. It always provides for a smoother working relation.

God or Higher Power we choose and I owed it to God and myself to get to know the true God, not one that someone else told me about when I was a child. Finally, one day, I heard God's message to let go and let God and to only focus on right now – doing only what I could at that moment and living in that day alone. This one decision was the start of sobriety for me, my mind had been opened to the possibility that I needed help from others who had been where I was now. Thankfully I have learned to handle difficult times by working the 12 steps with a sponsor and God, attending regular meetings, and reading the Big Book. I now know that there is not anything too difficult for God, that I can hear God's guidance through others. The true gift of the 12 steps is that giving up actually gives us power, this seems contradictory, but surrendering our will allows our time and energy to be spent on helping others, in other words, living as we were meant to. I am truly grateful for the blessings of honesty, open-mindedness and willingness gained through working the 12 steps of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Bill W. wrote of Intergroup Offices, “Though not costly, these agencies are absolutely essential to our continued expansion—to our survival as a Fellowship. Their costs are a collective obligation that rests squarely upon all of us. Our support of services actually amounts to a recognition on our part that A.A. must everywhere function in full strength—and that, under our Tradition of self-support, we are all going to foot the bill.”

The Twelve Traditions - How They Apply In Our Lives

TRADITION THREE: The only requirement for A.A. membership is a desire to stop drinking .

Traditions Checklist

These questions were originally published in Grapevine in conjunction with a series of articles on the Twelve Traditions that ran from November 1969 to September 1971. While they were originally intended as suggestions for individual use, many AA groups have adopted them and use them as a basis for wider discussion.

Tradition Three

1. In my mind, do I prejudge some new AA members as those who likely will not make it?
2. Is there some kind of alcoholic whom I privately or publicly do not want in my AA group?
3. Do I set myself up as a judge of whether a newcomer is sincere or not?
4. Do I let language, religion (or lack of it), race, education, age, sexual identity or other such things interfere with my carrying the message?
5. Am I over impressed by celebrity, a doctor, clergyman, an ex-convict? Or can I just treat this new member simply and naturally as one more sick human, like the rest of us?
6. When someone turns up at AA needing information or help (even if he can't ask for it aloud), does it really matter to me what they do for a living? Where they live? What their domestic arrangements are? Whether they have been to AA before? What their problems are?

Alcoholics Anonymous "Big Book" Quotes

"There I humbly offered myself to God as I then understood Him, to do with me as He would. I placed myself unreservedly under His care and direction. I admitted for the first time that of myself I was nothing; that without Him I was lost. I ruthlessly faced my sins and became willing to have my new found Friend take them away, root and branch. I have not had a drink since." Page 13

Most Area 36 events have a map on how to find the location @ www.area36.org. Open Speaker Meetings are listed for the convenience of members who wish to bring newcomers and non-alcoholic friends. Listing in the Mirus should not be construed as any endorsement on the part of Minneapolis Intergroup. Call Intergroup if you need directions to any of these Open Speaker Meetings. Roundups, Workshops and Special Events are not endorsed by Minneapolis Intergroup and listings are provided for informational purposes only. Flyers for these events are available at the office.
