Minneapolis Intergroup: Recovery, Unity, Service

April 2022 Step, Tradition, and Concept Four

Step Four

"Made a searching and fearless moral inventory of ourselves."

I have finished step three and have decided there is a GOD and it's not me.

So having discussed the next phase of my journey to sobriety with my sponsor I am ready to start step four. I have read pages 63-71 in the big book and consulted my 12 and 12.

It seems that the word best describing this step is Courage! I am going to do a thorough and vigorous house cleaning by taking an inventory of all my character defects and my greatest fears. Yes, for this I will need all the courage I can muster.

In step three I prayed to my higher power that I would live my life following his will and not my own and a mysterious and really wonderful peace has clearly given me the fearlessness I need to face this inventory. I understand now that by doing so I will clear the blockage I have developed and allow the "Sunlight of GODS spirit" to finally shine through.

I have read that my weaknesses have eroded the thread of the fabric of my existence. My self-reliance and fears have hidden from me the will of GOD and the pure freedom of spirituality.

Even though I was raised in a great nonjudgmental church, my closeness to my higher power always took a back seat and in order to allow GOD to work Gods will through me, I needed to do this. It is explained so well in the Big Book and the 12 and 12 and with my sponsors help, I had no excuse but to get to work.

It was hard and very unpleasant but I grudgingly began at a snail's pace. I wanted to stick with steps one, two and three then skip to 10, eleven and 12 but my sponsor would have none of that.

Being judgmental was the first thing that jumped out at me. Why I thought I was above anyone enough to be judgmental is a great mystery but I seemed to get some enjoyment out of it. Gossiping to other people was also a big thing but I had all the sins. Pride, Greed, Lust, Anger, Gluttony, envy and sloth. I was seven for seven.

Having it all laid out in front of me was ugly and I now know why they recommend going to step 5 as quickly as you can after you are done with 4.

But upon examination, there were people on my list that I would never see again even if I could remember their names. But there were also people very close to me that I could not exclude. Family members were at the top of that list. But that would have to wait a few steps. Right now I just need to get it all written down so I could move to Step five and let it all out in front of another Human Being.

After it was finished, at least as much as I could this time, I was thinking that this is something every person should do once during their life. When you think about it, we really are fortunate to go through these steps because most people just don't examine their lives like we alcoholics do.

Now I would like to add another word that applies to 4, Honesty! It takes courage and honesty to face this and to truly clear away the debris so our relationship with our higher power can be fully maximized.

Most people are afraid going into these action steps and maybe for good reason. It's not for the faint of heart. But, I have never met anyone who wasn't glad that they went through it.

Office Notes...

January 17, 2022 email sent to Intergroup

Does this meeting still exist? I sat in Room 199 by myself from 7-7:20 tonight. Not a fun feeling walking out alone tonight (rather lonely and isolating) considering the courage it takes to walk into any meeting as a first timer.

Call received March 14, 12:15pm at Intergroup: “I went to attend this meeting I have gone to before and everything was dark and thankfully I am not a newcomer and have other options.”

I could easily relate to this happening to me in my early days of sobriety. I would quickly make this into a good excuse to not go back. I have also learned the truth about alcoholism, and by not getting help for my alcoholism is a matter of life and death. It is not to be dramatic, it is reality.

Having an accurate meeting directory averts getting emails and calls like this. We rely on each group to be responsible for their group’s information listed on the aaminneapolis.org website meeting directory. This is also contingent on an accurate printed directory, the When & Where. We plan to print by the end of April 2022. We have been waiting for the right time when it felt right to print a new When & Where. The last printing was October 2019. The roadblock was obviously the pandemic and then the variant shutting down many groups from meeting in person. Two years later we are seeing the light at the end of the tunnel. As of October 2021 our latest roadblock was the 114 meetings that were listed on our website as “Temporary Inactive”.

Because we want to have the most accurate directory possible, we decided to see if we could connect with each of them and update as many as we could. Erin, Terri and Scott spent many hours looking for contacts, calling, leaving messages, etc. In January 2022 we got down to 45 inactive and with the counsel of the Group and Member Services Committee we decided to do an outreach and ask members to volunteer and visit one of these groups and find out once and for all if they still exist. Thanks to over ten volunteers we were able to reopen some more, delete some more and leave some as is. Whew! It has taken a lot of time and effort. We are getting closer.

Do we have the right information listed for your group? We want to help the newcomer be able to find you, where a miracle can happen.

In Love and Service

Gail S. your Office Manager

Notes from Your Board Chair:

What a great time of year it is, snows melting, birds chirping, new growth about to spring! As the snow melts it washes away all of last years mess and a clean and brighter time begins. Change of seasons can give us the feeling of a fresh start. As in nature we can do this in recovery also. Unlike in nature, in recovery there is work to be done by us individually in order to see that change. We need to see what is working and what isn’t and how we can improve ourselves. Here we call that an inventory. One thing I am grateful for is that I have the Principles and Traditions of AA and incorporate them into all aspects of my life. They have kept me rooted in AA and they have helped me become a better member of society. It not always easy, and I might not like all of it, but it’s not about me. Just as we do individually, we can also an inventory as a group. A good functioning group also takes an inventory. An inventory can help them see how they are functioning as a group, what they can do better, and how well they are carrying the message to newcomers.

I have heard many discussions lately that members appear to have become more relaxed and not as much involved in service, many newcomers that sobered up on Zoom don’t even know much about the service opportunities. One such opportunity is answering phones at Intergroup. There are several shifts that are open for a group that is only one day a month. Another issue happening more often is, groups at times decide that they just don’t need to show up. As the responsibility states, “I am responsible, when anyone, anywhere reaches out for help. I always want the hand of AA to be there. And for that I am responsible”. Are we living up to that?

Twelve Concepts for World Service, written by Bill W. in 1962

Concept IV - "At all responsible levels, we ought to maintain a traditional "Right of Participation," allowing a voting representation in reasonable proportion to the responsibility that each must discharge."

Participation is defined as the action of taking part in something. In Alcoholics Anonymous we value participation at all levels. But there are 135 people that participate in voting to make decisions for A.A. They include 93 delegates, 15 General Service Office staff members, and 21 trustees. The trustees are broken down into 7 non-alcoholics and 14 alcoholics. Each vote carries the same weight as any other. Each voter brings a unique perspective based on their role in our structure and the experience, strength, and hope that it gives them.

A.A. members do not get to vote or participate in person at the Conference. The delegate has that role. But there are ways that each A.A. member can participate.

Here in the West Central Region A.A. members are invited to share their voice at the West Central Regional Service Conference. This is an annual event that rotates around the region, so it is only in our area every eight years. This year it was in St. Louis Park. We had 438 people participate in the process of learning and sharing about the agenda items that will be addressed by members of the General Service Conference in April. If you or your General Service Representative were not able to make it this year, plan to attend next year in Nebraska.

Another way to participate in the process here in Southern Minnesota is by attending the Delegate's Workshop on April 2. This is an event where GSRs and members here in Area 36 can come together and share their feedback on agenda items with the delegate. Please plan to join us at the Rosemount Community Center.

Stacy M.
Delegate, Panel 71

“Why should not each of us tell himself: ‘Yes, we were once a burden on everybody. We were ‘takers.’ Now that we are sober, and by the grace of God have become responsible citizens of the world, why shouldn’t we now about-face and become ‘thankful givers’!
Yes, it is high time we did.”

Bill W. wrote of our service entities, “Though not costly, these agencies are absolutely essential to our continued expansion—to our survival as a Fellowship. Their costs are a collective obligation that rests squarely upon all of us. Our support of services actually amounts to a recognition on our part that A.A. must everywhere function in full strength—and that, under our Tradition of self-support, we are all going to foot the bill.”

What is the Birthday Plan?

In grateful celebration of their sobriety birthdays, many A.A. members contribute one dollar or more for each year of sobriety to any or all of our four service entities; the local Intergroup, District, Area Assembly, and General Service Office.

Every A.A. service is designed to help carry the A.A. message to the alcoholic who still suffers. Your Birthday Plan contributions* help make our vital services possible.

“When we meet and defeat the temptation to take large gifts, we are being prudent. But when we are generous with the hat, we give a token that we are grateful for our blessing and evidence that we are eager to share what we have found with all those who still suffer.”

Bill W., Language of the Heart

* Contributions are limited to $5,000 per member per year† and are tax deductible under Internal Revenue Code §501(3)(c).

The Twelve Traditions - How They Apply In Our Lives

From the Traditions Checklist

Tradition Four: Each group should be autonomous except in matters affecting other groups or AA as a whole.

- Do I insist that there are only a few right ways of doing things in AA?
- Does my group always consider the welfare of the rest of AA? Of nearby groups? Of loners in Alaska? Of internationalists miles from port? Of a group in Rome or El Salvador?
- Do I put down other members' behavior when it is different from mine, or do I learn from it?
- Do I always bear in mind that, to those outsiders who know I am in AA, I may to some extent represent our entire beloved Fellowship?
- Am I willing to help a newcomer go to any lengths – his lengths, not mine – to stay sober?
- Do I share my knowledge of AA tools with other members who may not have heard of them?

Alcoholics Anonymous "Big Book" Quotes

"This was step Four. A business which takes no regular inventory usually goes broke. Taking commercial inventory is a fact-finding and fact-facing process. It is an effort to discover the truth about the stock-in-trade. One object is to disclose damage or unsalable goods, to get rid of them promptly and without regret. If the owner of the business is to be successful, he cannot fool himself about values. We did exactly the same thing with ourselves. We took stock honestly. First, we searched out the flaws in our make-up which caused our failure. Being convinced that self, manifested in various ways, was what had defeated us, we considered its common manifestations."
