

33rd Annual Mackinac Island Fall Weekend October 14-16, 2022

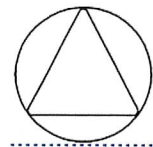

We're heading back to the island again this year and specifically Mission Point Resort!! It seems far off, but it's only months away and plans are taking shape to have another fun and inspirational event. Since you've been with us before, you are receiving this email so that you have first choice in registering. Do to the growing and worldwide popularity of the island as a vacationer's destination, registering early insures you have a room for this popular event.

If you think you may want a logo shirt as a souvenir of your weekend, please pre-order on the registration form...there will be few, if any, available for purchase on the island. Also, if you are willing to participate on one of our AA or Alanon panels, please indicate your interest by marking the box on the registration form.

Upon receiving your registration form, we will send, via email or snail mail, your registration confirmation which includes the information you'll need to reserve your room at our special group rate. The hotel has given us a registration cut off date of September 21, so make your reservation soon!!

*Have a fantastic
summer and we hope to see you on the island!!*
